

Argument

PLANNING/PREWRITING

Use a graphic organizer to help you choose a story element that is particularly powerful and that makes the story memorable.

Directions: In center of the diagram, record the title of the story or novel you have chosen. Then jot down reasons why each story element is effective and powerful. Circle the element for which you have listed the most reasons. It is the element you can focus on in your argument.

